

Rights and Reproductions Policy

Introduction

The National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame provides images of and reproductive rights to artifacts and photographs in the Museum's permanent collection. Requests include personal use, research, publications and non-printed media use (videos, CD-ROMs, websites, etc.).

Copyright Restrictions

Copyright restrictions on many photographs prohibit their being made available without prior written permission from the copyright holder.

The National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame will make every effort to inform applicants of copyrights and other restrictions that may apply to the photographs being reproduced. However, it cannot warrant that all photographic materials furnished may be freely reproduced in the absence of such notification. Institutions or individuals may claim ownership and control of copyright or reproduction rights of certain photographs.

It is the responsibility of those intending to publish photographic materials furnished by the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame to ascertain what claims there may be and to assume the responsibility of compliance with pertinent copyright restrictions.

Payment and Fees

Payment is required upon receipt of invoice. All payments must be in U.S. dollars written on a U.S. bank. Photographic materials will be sent upon receipt of payment. The National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame will accept the following methods of payment:

- Personal or business check in U.S. dollars written on a U.S. bank (please make checks payable to National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame)
- American Express, VISA, MasterCard or Discover (send the name on the card, the account number and the expiration date)

Fee Schedule is attached.

Reproduction of Imagery

The National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame can provide black-and-white prints and digital images for reproduction in a publication, film, or other project. In addition to identifying the image(s) clearly, please note as much information about your publication or project as possible, including, when applicable:

- Title
- Author or editor
- Publisher or producer
- Projected date of publication or broadcast
- Press run size or number of broadcasts
- Whether you wish to reproduce the image on the cover of the project
- Distribution requested (North America, worldwide, or other)
- Edition/ production

Conditions Governing Reproduction of Objects and Photographs in the Collection of the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame

- Permission is granted for one-time use only. Any subsequent use of photographic materials must be requested in writing from the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame. Subsequent use includes new editions or revisions.
- Each reproduction shall bear the following credit line plus any additional credit information stated on the label attached to the photographic material being reproduced: National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame, Fort Worth, Texas
- The publisher must provide the Museum with two complete, gratis copies of the publication in which the reproduction appears within one month of publication. Send to the attention of the Curator.
- In the case of color reproductions, one color proof must be submitted to and approved by the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame before printing can proceed. Tear sheets will not be accepted in lieu of color proofs.
- Permission to reproduce and the fees payable cover only the specific use detailed in a contract. Any new edition, version, or additional use of any kind must be preceded by a new application and is not covered by the original permission to reproduce and fees.
- Reproduction of a color image previously obtained by the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame is permitted only when appropriate proof of that color image was supplied by the Museum is provided. As noted above, color proofs must be submitted for approval. When applicable, instructions for color correction will be provided. If proper correction cannot be obtained, rental of new color materials will be required to make a new reproduction.
- Each artifact and/or photograph must be reproduced in full. Requests to crop, bleed, silhouette, overprint, or alter an image in any way must be received in writing with a layout of proposed alteration prior to publication. Otherwise, the reproduction must be made in full-tone black and white or full color unless approved in advance by the Museum. If approved, detail reproductions must be identified as such in the credit line.

- Photographic materials shall not be used to show or imply that the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame endorses any commercial product or enterprise, concurs with the opinions expressed in, or confirms the accuracy of any text used with the said materials.
- Permission to reproduce depends on full payment of assigned fees. Failure to pay the required fees means that permission has not been granted. Foreign payments must be made in U.S. dollars, drawn on a U.S. bank or International Money Order.
- The National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame will make every effort to inform applicants of copyrights and other restrictions that may apply to the photographs being reproduced. However, it cannot warrant that all photographic materials furnished may be freely reproduced in the absence of such notification. Institutions or individuals may claim ownership and control of copyright or reproduction rights of certain photographs. It is the responsibility of those intending to publish photographic materials furnished by the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame to ascertain what claims there may be and to assume the responsibility of compliance with pertinent copyright restrictions.

Please note these instructions and restrictions when requesting rights for reproduction:

- All requests should be in writing, clearly identifying the artifact(s) and/or photograph(s) requested.
- Please include your address, phone number and fax number in your request.
- Please see Reproduction of Imagery section for additional information, which must be included in your written request.
- Requests must be for specific items.
- When possible, attach a photocopy of the item(s). Please note the credit lines, title, author, and date of the publication.
- Please send requests by fax to (817)335-2470 or mail to 1720 Gendy Street, Fort Worth, TX 76107, Attention: Rights and Reproductions.
- You will receive a form, which serves as an application, and our list of conditions for reproduction of imagery.
- The form is to be signed by the person requesting the image(s) for reproduction and the person responsible for ensuring that the reproduction conforms to the Museum's conditions.

Return the form with your payment and allow 4-6 weeks (from the day we receive the signed form and payment) for your request to be processed.

- Requests will not be considered unless four weeks notice (from our receipt of request) is given.
